

Professional Development . . . . .

At NWPMA, we understand that your growth as a Promotional Marketing Professional is important to you, as it is for many of your peer professionals. This is why we make professional development one of our top priorities.

By enlisting top professionals from many aspects of the promotional marketing industry, NWPMA provides exciting professional development opportunities several times each year at our own regional events.

NWPMA Professional Development is your link to the educational opportunities our Industry has to offer. Membership in NWPMA allows you access to the PPAI educational events that are made available throughout the country.

“We were very pleased with the NWPMA tradeshow. Both in number and quality, the distributor turnout was far beyond our expectations.”

Tradeshows & Social Events . . . . .

Who ever said networking can't be fun! NWPMA organizes the best tradeshows in the Pacific Northwest, acting as a catalyst to foster new and exciting business relationships between our members.

Increase your product knowledge and meet your peers through exciting events that may include golfing at premier golf courses in the Northwest, baseball games, beach parties, casino events and more.

“My involvement with NWPMA has been a great asset to me personally as well as for my company. Regional association involvement has definitely helped me grow as a professional in our industry. The networking the association provides has been great for discussing industry issues as well as what is going on in the marketplace”.      - Tom Goos, Image Source

Volunteer Efforts . . . . .

The NWPMA board of Directors and Committee members are a group of your peers who care enough to make this association one of the best in the country. If you are interested in becoming a member of the board or volunteer, please contact NWPMA for more information.
